My Dear Grandpa:

We have had very unpleasant weather this week. One day it was only two above zero, & the next it was raining & thawing. To-day is a beautiful day, clear & cold.

I am making myself a pair of warm worsted shoes. If you will draw the outline of your sole on a piece of paper & send it (the paper I mean) to me, I will make you a pair. They are very warm, & nice to put on.

when your feet are cold.
Please tell me what color
you would like the worsted.
Papa has gone to the city to-day. He has a great deal of business there ~~now~~ now.
This is the third time he has been down this week.
I hope he will soon get through with his business,
so that we can go South.
I am now reading the history of Acadia the "Land of Evangeline." It is very pleasantly written, & reads like a story. Did you ever read it?

With a great deal of love
Your affectionate Granddaughter

Florida Lee.
